New Features

Change Requests

Creative direction, scope, and details can change quickly and often. Change Requests allows updates to accepted requests so that you can react in real time, realign your resources to meet evolving needs, and better plan for the future.

Head over to Account Settings and toggle on Change Requests (<https://guide.lytho.com/help/change-requests>) to start taking advantage of this feature today!

Available only to Business and Enterprise Customers

Check out our article, Submitting a Change Request (<https://guide.lytho.com/help/requesting-change-requests>), to share with your Stakeholders and ensure they have everything they need to make this new feature a success for you and your team.

Bulk Actions in Projects

Do more with fewer clicks using bulk actions (<https://guide.lytho.com/help/table-views#bulk-actions-in-table-views>) inside projects. Users can shift start and due dates; archive and unarchive; and delete multiple work items in the same project simultaneously.

Feeling nostalgic? Here's what we released...
